

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A
PROPER 10 A
EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST A

Lest the Word of God return empty to the heavens, let us turn our hearts to the needs of others and plant the seeds of justice, saying: In mercy, hear us.

For the Christian churches throughout the world, that together we may harvest compassion in an abundance of mercy, we pray:

That leaders of government refuse to worship Mars, the god of war, but rather attend to Christ's call of peace, we pray:

For farmers, harvesters, and migrant workers, and for an end of injustice toward those who work the land, we pray:

That people of the earth may honor and respect the natural resources of the planet, and for an end to the consumerism that encourages ravage, we pray:

For the catechumens in our communities, that fertile in faith they may be a soil rich in receptivity, we pray:

For all the sick [especially N.], and for all the oppressed, that the reign of God will hold sway in all human life, we pray:

[Here other intercessions may be offered.]

Blessed and praised are you, O God, for the word of your mouth. In your mercy, listen to all who call to you in faith. Let your word find root in our lives. We pray in the name of your child Jesus, who lives with you in the power of the Spirit, forever.
